

DJ WHO

How long have you been spinning? How'd you get started?

Since year 2000 I have been DJ'ing but started taking it seriously in 2003. I started out playing at house party's in San Diego and after hours spots, when I was called to fill in at the W Hotel, San Diego. Since then, I've had the privilege of DJ'ing all over San Diego.

How are you connected to San Diego?

Born and raised in San Diego, California.

Who are some of your musical influences?

I listen to a lot of different kinds of music: hip hop, metal, classic rock, house, 80s, but I would say 2pac, Biggie, Deftones & Rage Against the Machine.

How would you describe your sound?

Fun, Electric & Party Rockin!

What's the story behind your name?

When I first started playing at house parties, I played at this house party where I did not know anyone except for my friend that came with me. Throughout the night people were coming up to my friend asking him "who is this DJ, who is this DJ?" At the time I did not have a name, so my friend just replied to the people saying "that's DJ Who". From that point the name stuck.

What have you been up to recently? Get your brag on.

I have just been working hard and playing all over the San Diego club scene. I also just finished a new CD that I'm getting ready to release. It's called 'The Twilight Zone,' check it out. You can also check out my upcoming shows at www.djwho.biz, www.myspace.com/1djwho or who@giantstarise.com

What's it like behind the scenes at shows? You a rock star or what?

It is always fun in the DJ booth. I feel that one of the best spots hanging out in the club is the DJ booth. Yes I'm a rock star. I think all DJ's are rock stars, we do this almost every night.

What's next for DJ Who?? Plugs? Shoutouts?

I am ready to shake up the music industry and clubs across the nation with my selection of music and style of play. I wanna give a shout out to all the people who supported me through everything and my family and friends. Also shout out to Urban Empire, Sleeping Giant Music & Saint's Sinphony Clothing.
