Younan had the following to say about his busy schedule and music:

"It's a lot of juggling, but I'm used to it, I've done it all my life. I'm excited about the future, about my label and my production work. I wake up every morning and ask, what is going to keep me going? What can I do that nobody else has done yet? What's next? I just want people to enjoy my music as much as I enjoy playing it for them."
