EDMNYC is excited to showcase not one, but two talented artists this month... Richie Santana and Peter Bailey. These two individual producers have had years of success both solo and as a duo. Named after their peak-hour Stereo Productions smash of the same name from 2008, the duo's Mindcontrol residency stems back to 2006 at the Pacha New York. Whether it's house, techno, or tech house, Richie Santana and Peter Bailey have made a unique imprint on the NYC nightlife culture for two decades, and continue to do so today. Join us on Sunday, March 16th for Richie Santana at Brooklyn's hotspot, Output, and Saturday, April 19th for Richie and Peter together at Cielo NYC. Without further ado, here's our two artists of the month...
