From tov trumpet cover versions to messed up Japanese adult film montaaes via aood old fashioned mind! The only time it gets a little old is when I post something on my Facebook page like from a recent show or pictures from a recent fishing trip and the next comments are always Darude –

Help

As if it needs the publicity. Originally released in 1999, Sandstorm's success is impressive. It's tickled the top 10 in 10 countries, it's sold millions of copies, it's been used in all sorts of games, sports and on TV and has spawned countless variations.

With all this success in mind, you kind of wonder if Darude could have retired off this one track...

Darude - Sandstorm

"I can say that pennies are still coming my way," he says, all coy. "But I'm not a gazillionaire! I'm not worth the same amount of money that the track has sold. There are labels and agents and everyone else who take their cut of it, too. I'm living a comfortable life, sure, but I still think of the future like everyone else!"

Darude's own future includes his label EnMass, work on a fourth studio album and a consistent schedule of international shows which brings us to one final thing he'd like to clear up...

"There is one thing I'd like to clear up," he states. "And that's the rumour that I stopped playing the track over 10 years ago. Someone misunderstood me in an interview as I said that I haven't played the original mix since 2002. Let me tell you, I play this at every single gig! I've got some special remixes which I've done for myself and some of my friends have done amazing remixes. Plus there are a million bootlegs around and some of them are pretty good! I do play it. I love to play it. It got me going so I'll always represent it. People still go nuts to it after all these years, so I'll never get fed up of it!"

Amen to that. Darude, we salute you.

Hello ITs Me Darude sand storm memes. I have become completely captivated by the underground trance joke movement, that i'm starting to lose track of the real world. i wonder whats real and whats fake. the only real stuff these days is like Aveci

And MArving garret, one of my friend showed me Drexia and The Afex Twins, also showing me some nerd named Legoweld (dudes such a nerd and his music is bad not a ingle Filthy Drop in it, like what UKF dup step has) but i wonder what if trance had filthy drop? how bangin would it be if you put a sick donk on it. why are there so many artist out there trying to be trance but not? (like Jeff Mill, Basic Chanel Bureal, LTK Buken, DJ Rasad, Reggies & Surgon and so many other bad musician) but I dont Know I Got into Electronic Music through TEisto (THE BEST!!!) and whenever i first heard The Filthiest BAss Drop of my life!!! on UKF Huge Respect UKF thank you for showing the world REAL Dub Step And Drum And bas, not fake shit like code 9, schaleton, Horse Production for dubste and Swords direct, PTotek, Dillenger, and so many others fro drum and base. Sick article I Love Trance, Thank you UKF for showing the world the power that lies within trance and also showing them the filthiest drops ever made!!

I still think it was kind of crappy on him to come down so hard on Candyland for their remix.

Maybe he came down on the remix so hard because trap fucking blows, i'd hate to see anything i created ruined to that extent.
