BORIS INTERVIEW: BIG SHOT MAG

BORIS recently spoke with Big Shot Mag for the 2015 Rewind. Read the interview below:

How was 2015 for you? A pretty good year full of ups and down. Transmit Recordings has picked up heavy steam with a lot of top charting releases with some heavy artists. Our events at Winter Music Conference, BPM, NYC and across the globe have been successful and growing for the most part.

Highlights? Our Get Wet pool party during Miami Music Week went into its 11th year and is always a highlight. Our BPM Transmit showcase was great, and of course I did my debut gig at Space Ibiza NY. I also had regular plays at Output and look forward to another first as I close out 2015 with my debut at Marquee NY.

Lowlights? Losing my dear friend of 23 years and legendary NYC promoter Rob Fernandez, and Ultra founder and friend from Miami Alex Ohmes was tough to swallow.

Song of the year: Way too many songs to name, so I'll name a few from the label: D-Unity – "Cancel"

What's your New Year's resolution? To have the best year yet as far as touring, have the label grow and have more success.
