Las Vegas-based newcomer Revolvr teamed up with songstress/producer Lea Luna and her sultry vocals to bring listeners a three-piece EP entitled Machine due out on Dim Mak Records. The short-lived extended play delivers action-packed outputs seeping with electro energy and Luna’s alluring harmonies to form a collection veering into the darker side of dance music.

The EP starts off with the title track “Machine” which begins with quivering synths and diving hi-hats creating a progressive electro house track that is met by pulsating kick-drums and airy lyrics midway through. “By Your Side” comes up next giving dubstep fans an innovative production with plunging bass and Luna’s sinisterly savvy melodies. “Dirty Secret” wraps up the package by incorporating electro and dubstep sounds alike to create a tune with a throbbing synth line and funky bass crashes.

Click below the break for an exclusive play before the official release of Machine goes on sale November 27 .
