Harry Romero – Time

Music

Valarie Morris July 6, 2017 No Comments

After joining Armada Music with his legendary Subliminal Records imprint a little over a year ago, Erick Morillo is relaunching another one of his famed imprints under the wing of the Amsterdam-based record label.

After five years on ice, SONDOS returns to add some extra Techno, Tribal and underground flavor to the scene once more. Sparking this new era of SONDOS is 'Time', a highly-anticipated offering from Harry Romero, out now via SONDOS. Packing big bass alongside swell grooves, triplet synth lines and Harry Romero's signature drums, this cut will make the purest of DJs feel right at home.
