Dateless is no stranger to Tchami's taste making Confession label, releasing alongside Lucati just over 2 months ago via Malaa's 'Illegal Mixtape' with 'Boost Morale'. Back once again, Dateless has released his new 'Hit Em With The EP', ripe with g-house flair and vocal cuts primed for the main floor. Now available to stream and purchase via all platforms, the 4 track EP is both dark and heavy, and will be widely appreciated by Tchami's loyal followers and Confession fans alike.

LISTEN: DATELESS – 'HIT EM WITH THE EP' [CONFESSION]

Dateless has been producing quality tracks for some time, releasing via Confession on multiple occasions, alongside other tracks via respectable labels, Dirtybird, Toolroom, and Sweat It Out to name a few. His just released 'Hit Em With The EP' places 4 innovative and different sounding cuts among Confession's steady stream of creative output. Starting off with 'Hit Em With The Hardcore', the track opens with a double dose of highs and lows, culminating in a buzzing drop. Second up is 'S.F.U', a dark cut with a bassline wobble drenched in a distinct brand of Dateless funk. 'That Girl' notches the EP to another level, speeding up the tempo and bringing a breakbeat type vibe to the project. Dateless concludes with his track 'Todos', a pulsating number ringing with vocal chops and rippling bassline. Taking listeners on a true journey, 'Hit Em With The EP' is absolutely raucous, and serves as a perfect kickoff for the impending summer festival season.
