Cocodrills - Battle Rap EP

Artist(s): Cocodrills

Title: Battle Rap EP

Label: Blackflag Recordings

Catalogue Number: BFR 033

Back for their second release on Blackflag, Cocodrills hail from Miami and this duo have been on a tear up in the states for the past 6 years. The first track Battle Rap gives you a peek on what influences the boys have been picking up on as of lately. The choppy beat along with scattered hip hop samples keep you coming for more.

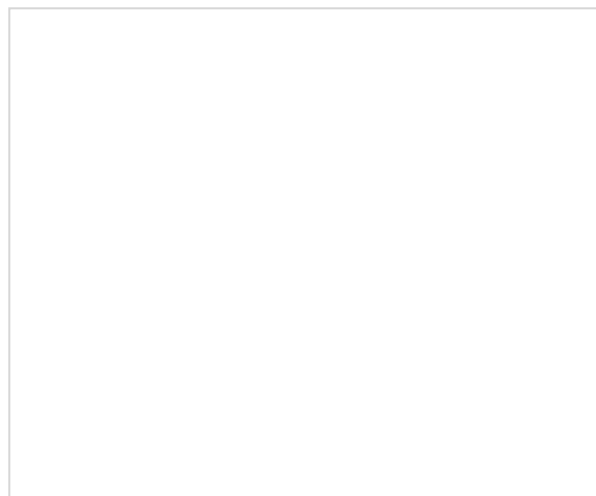

Spanish DJ Producer Paco Osuna serves up a rolling beat bass remix of Battle Rap with his signature sound that will keep the dance floor moving nonstop.

Chemical Reaction has the boys on the techno tip. The clean sparkled percussion programming is first noticeable in the first minute of the track, then it carries onto the electric vocal sample along with the synth buildup that's hypnotic.

Bringing up the rear is the final track of the EP called Bad Boy and the old skool 90s bass line sounds as fresh as it did many years ago but its fresh overtones of current and fresh ideas makes it something you don't want to miss.

Cocodrills are a new breed of producers that bring a fresh perspective of energy and versatility that's undeniable, and they have a strong loyal fanbase that they have cultivated
