DEFECTED PRESENTS HOUSE MASTERS - HARRY ROMERO

20.01.2023

Harry Romero joins the illustrious list of House Masters; the humble house legend drops his anticipated 30-track compilation on February 3rd.

Featuring old favourites and driving re-edits of the producer's biggest tracks, appealing to long-time fans while also reaching a new generation of listeners to discover his rich discography. This special compilation celebrates Romero's solo releases in addition to collaborations with prolific house vocalists such as Inaya Day, Cece Rogers and Jocelyn Brown.

Powerful tracks that propelled the Latin master to international acclaim, 'Night @ The Black' and 'Just Can't Get Enough', sit alongside exclusive remixes of classic house tracks, like Johnny Corporate's 'Sunday Shoutin"', as well as Romero's fresh takes on more recent releases from the likes of Honey Dijon and DJ SKT.

"It's been a 30-year love affair with this music and culture. House music has been really good to me and to see this track-list and know that I've contributed and brought joy and happiness to so many just warms my heart. This track list represents so much hard work and so many sleepless nights but most importantly it's my art and I am very proud of what I've accomplished thus far. I hope you all enjoy the music and the journey as much as I have." – Harry Romero

Recent collaborations with Honey and Louie Vega have cemented Harry 'Choo Choo' Romero's status as one of the most revered producers in the game, and Defected presents House Masters – Harry Romero signals a rebirth as Harry 2.0 enters his renaissance.
