San Diego based artist's Freshcobar, and debuting under a new alias Eggwax, are here with a new remix on WHOSMUSIC. This new remix for Cestoda's track 'Pleasure Delay', which is an exciting Indie Pop track that features a ton of creative directions and influence that spans across multiple styles. While both Freshcobar and Eggwax are heavily involved in the club circuit for the past 20+ years nationwide, it's awesome to see them make time to put together a club ready tune to compliment. The track also features Kajé Jones' amazing vocal work, that seems to carry the track into an also Deep House/Nu Disco direction.

'Pleasure Delay' is out now!
